

A photograph of a refrigerator shelf. Two empty, dark glass beer bottles are lying horizontally on the shelf, one on the left and one on the right. In the center of the shelf, a white rectangular sign is placed. The sign has black text that reads: "Wenn Du das hier lesen kannst:" followed by "Bier nachfüllen!" in a larger, bold font. The refrigerator's interior is white, and the lighting is warm, coming from a light source on the right side of the frame. Below the shelf, a wire mesh basket is visible, containing some crumpled paper and other items.
